Friday, Sept. 8—No Stakes.

Saturday, Sept. 9—The Great Eastern Handicap, for two-year-olds; Futurity Course. The Autumn Cup, for three-year-olds and upward; two miles.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

A call has been issued for a meeting of the American Association of Breeders of Thoroughbred Horses to be held at the Hoffman House, New York, August 24, at 10 a. m., for the purpose of formulating rules and regulations for the government of the association. The formation of the association was the outcome of a meeting of the most prominent breeders in America held in New York on June 22. General W. H. Jackson was elected president, L. O. Appleby, vice-president, and O. H. Chenault, secretary and treasurer.

Mr. W. T. Samuelson, manager for Captain S. S. Brown of Pittsburgh, Thursday afternoon shipped to La Grange, Ky., seven yearlings belonging to Captain Brown which have been broken at the Tophunter place near Lexington. They will be handled at Captain Brown's farm near La Grange and be put in training next winter. It is pleasant news to all interested in the turf that Captain Brown's colors will return to the race-course next season. In addition to this richly bred bunch of yearlings Captain Brown has some two-year-olds at Newport, and will buy additional yearlings this fall. Following is the lot shipped Thursday: Brown colt, by Troubadour—Senorita; bay colt, by Troubadour—Eukonia; brown filly, by Troubadour—Sunbeam; bay filly, by Troubadour—Matinee; chestnut filly, by Troubadour—Sunlight; bay colt, by Blue Wing—Viola; brown filly, by Hanover—Josie H.—The Thoroughbred Record.

Up to and including last Saturday owners whose horses had won for them $2,000 or more at the St. Louis meeting were as follows:

Owners.	Won.	Owners.	Won.
J. W. Schorr & Sons	$15,747	C. C. M. Pitt	9,493

The Chrysanthemum, a handicap for two-year-olds, $1,000, one mile, is to be run next Saturday, the closing day of the St. Louis meeting. The weights for the stake are to be announced three days prior to the race. Among the probable starters in the stake are Deveric, Special Notice, Duke of Melbourne, Verdinst, Sidbow and John Millin. George Bennett made seven entries to the stake but he failed to nominate Capron, the best two-year-old in his stable. J. C. Cahn also made an entry to the stake, but overlooked Thrive, who would doubtless be a hard horse to beat in the stake, if he was eligible to start. The Conqueror is in the stake, but his trainer, Paddy Tomlinson, states that the colt is not within a month of a race. All the Schorr colts, including Sam Phillips, F. W. Brode and Greenock, are eligible, but the stable is at Saratoga. Schorr won the Chrysanthemum last year with Sea Lion, and the year before he also captured it with Lieber Karl.

The following names have been registered with Messrs. Weatherby in England for American bred yearlings: by Marcus Daly—Admiral Dewey II., for ch. c., by Tammany—Wood Violet; Nainsook, for ch. c., by Montana—Peticoat; Glenvarloch, for ch. c., by Inveness—Missoula; Frankfort II., for b. c., by Hanover—Lady Reel; Gold Spinner, for b. c., by Goldfluch—Red Spinner; Emp r um, for ch. c., by The Pepper—Cockernoney; Protege, for b. f., by Tammany—Benefactor; Debater, for b. f., by Russell—Contradicti n; Golden Grain II., for ch. f., by Han ver—Fleur d'Or; Cistercian, for ch. f., by Goldfluch—La Trappe. By W. O. B. MacDonough—Be u Ormude, for ch. c., by Ormoude—Miss Brumm l. By Russell Moor—Fireball II., for b. c., by St. Blaise—Krik. By Lora P. Rhyne—Lincoln Belle, for ch. f., by Great Tom—Guildean.

For t Union, the two-year-old by Abana—Miss Maud, that carried C. C. Maffitt's colors to the front at the Fair Grounds one day last week, was bred by Mr. Maffitt, who owns the youngster's dam. Miss Maud cost $2,000 as a yearling, and that's the most the St. Louis horseman ever paid for a yearling. Miss Maud is by Uhlan—Barbary. Her dam, Barbary, has thrown a number of good performers. Miss Maud's third foal is the three-year-old Osage, by Backmaster. Osage was a good looking youngster in the spring of his two-year-old form, and promised to develop into quite a racing tool, but he was taken sick with catarrhal fever before he could be gotten to a race and has been of no account since. Mr. Maffitt keeps his broodmares at J. D. Lucas' Goodwood stud, in St. Louis county. Miss Maud and Lucille Manette have been quartered there since their racing days were over. Lucille Manette has had three foals. Her first foal never amounted to anything, but her second produce, Canrobert, by Doctor Hasbrouck, although still a maiden, has run several fair races, and may earn his oats as a three-year-old. Lucille Manette's produce last year was a bay filly by Earl Shot. She is one of the finest-looking yearlings at the track and promises to make a good two-year-old.—St. Louis Republic.

Of some features incident to the racing at Saratoga last Saturday the Morning Telegraph says:

"Of no little interest was the announcement made late in the afternoon that jockeys Martin and Turner had been suspended for the balance of the meeting. Martin was punished because of alleged betting transactions, and a man by the name of Speakman, who it is said acted as his commissioner, was warned off the turf. The sentence against Turner was based on what the stewards believed to have been some bad riding earlier in the meeting.

"This official action is of more significance than appears on the surface. It is the outcome of a rather stormy session of the stewards of the Jockey Club held last night at the United States Hotel, at which were present August Belmont, James R. Keene, Andrew Miller and F. R. Hitchcock. The discussion waxed very warm as to Martin and Turner, and there is some doubt as to whether these riders will be reinstated at the New York fall meeting.

"The same source of information from which the above came is authority for the statement that the stewards decided to put an end to time betting, and that they have under surveillance a select bunch of trainers and jockeys, including some of the western division, whom the stewards think need official attention."

NOTES OF THE TURF.

In the Eclipse Stakes at Sandown Park, for 1902, American horses are well entered, A Belmont has two entries, Lord William Beresford three, W. Broderick Cloete two, J. S. Curtis seven, F. P. Keene five, J. R. Keene five, P. Lorillard twelve and W. C. Whitney three. In the National Breeders' Produce Stakes J. S. Curtis has entered sixteen mares, and P. Lorillard twenty-five.

Sydney Paget and Eugene Leigh have swapped jockeys, Paget taking Turner, while Leigh will have Clawson for the balance of the season. Turner rode two races for Mr. Paget Saturday. High Degree in the first and The Bachelor in the fourth, winning with the latter in a hard drive.

W. C. Whitney has purchased from W. B. Sink, Jr., the two-year-old chestnut filly Orthea, by Ormoude—Muta, by Wilshire—Mutiny, by Adventurer. Price said to be $4,000.

Dan Rice's eccentric running at Saratoga has brought about an order from the stewards barring him from starting there in the future.

Mr. F. M. Ware has been appointed starter for the Toronto Jockey Club's fall meeting.

Pat Dunne has sold his three-year-old colt, Hard Knot, to D. J. Lynch.

AGAIN AT HARLEM.

"Back to Harlem and get here again," is what could be heard at all corners of the grounds yesterday. It seems that many of the regulars had a disastrous two-weeks recently at Hawthorne, and they have temporarily soured on the beautiful Cicero course.

Notwithstanding it was Monday, and a blue one at that, it was surprising to see the number of people that went to view the races. Still the program offered by Secretary Nathanson was well balanced and drew out many good horses. With such an inducement, the Chicago racing public will turn out, no matter what day of the week it is or how stormy or hot the day may be.

Thrive, J. C. Cahn's Top Gallant—Elmira colt, ran a grand race in the second event of the day and demonstrated that he is as good, if not better than any of the two-year-olds in training at the local track. He did not carry much weight, only 99 pounds, but considering the rough journey he had and the way in which he won and also the time, the performance was certainly a sparkling one. Thrive was a 1 to 2 favorite over an ordinary lot and he appeared to be a "good thing" but those that bet on him at that price had a sensation they will long remember. Erla d'Or and Thrive broke in front to a good start both together, but before they had gone over 200 feet Vitale, on Erla d'Or, pulled in on Thrive and came within an ace of throwing him and Jenkins over the fence. As it was the colt went to his knees and for an instant it looked serious for Jenkins, but the boy displayed great nerve and fine jockeyship and managed to get the colt back on his feet again. By this time Oconee and Erla d'Or were many lengths in front of him but he set sail for them and by the time the stretch was reached Thrive was "n-eight" and at the eighth post he had the race in hand. From there home Jenkins took matters easily but even then the five furlongs was run in 1:00.1. With clear sailing and pushed to the limit Thrive would have run very close to the record.

That Sidney Bender's Teoby is as game as steel was clearly demonstrated in the fourth event. This race was at a mile and a sixteenth and four of the best handicap horses in the west made up the field. Serrano was the favorite at 4 to 5 and won the race rather handily, but had Tenby not met with bad luck he might have beaten the Tomlinson crack. As it was Tenby ran a grand race, but it may be his last appearance for sometime. He picked up a sore at some stage of the journey and when he pulled up he was so lame that he could hardly walk. The rock found wedged in between his hoof and shoe, was as big as an ordinary man's fist. From constant pressure it had worked well up into the hoof, and before it could be extracted the shoe had to be taken off. This good horse was hit in the eye and almost blinded the last previous time he started, and when he went limping back to the stable with his eye bandaged in cotton and his foot so sore that he could hardly step on it he resembled the beaten fighter that was "a little disfigured but still in the ring."

Over Latch Key's win in the first race Albert Simons cleaned up a neat sum. The last time the big horse started at Hawthorne he could not beat a track horse, but since then at Harlem, so rumor has it, he worked a mile in 1:40.4. On the strength of this Simons bet heavily and also told his friends to get down. Latch Key opened at 8 to 1, went to 12 to 1, but was backed down to 8 to 1 again. Newcom rode the "good thing" and handled him cleverly. He let him loaf along in the first part of the race

AGAIN AT HARLEM.

and then came with a rush at the end. He just got up in time to beat Andes, another
"good thing" that had worked fast, by a head
on the post.

Jolly Roger is a hot horse at present. He was in the mile three-year-old race with only 99 pounds on his back, and after trailing the bunch to the stretch he came up on the outside when Beauchamp got ready and in a clever way beat Tulane by one length in 1:39. The latter got a bad ride.

Despite Plantain's hard race Saturday Bradley started him right back again at nine furlongs and at 4 to 5 he won off by himself. This gelding is greatly improved this season.

Jockey Rose stole such a long lead on Starter
Dwyer in the last race with Little Jack Horner that the others could never catch him, and,
staggering and out to the last ounce, the gelding barely managed to last long enough to beat Tenole, who was driving and staggering himself.

Jockey Jenkins received a flattering offer yesterday from Mr. Lorillard, the owner of David Garrick, to ride that youngster in the great Futurity Saturday next. Mr. Lorillard offers all expenses and $2,500 should the colt win the rich stake.

GOSSIP OF THE TURF.

In 1890 Mr. A. J. Cassatt, now president of the Pennsylvania Railroad, announced his intention of retiring permanently from the turf. For nine years his name had been identified with the notable racing events, and he was one of the men who did so much in the early eighties to advance the standard of the turf.

As owner of the famous Chesterbrook Stock Farm, his colors, the good old red, white and blue, were popular on the turf some ten or twelve years ago. About their last appearance was in 1888, when The Bard won the Brooklyn Handicap, Eurus having the year previously won the Suburban.

The announcement that Mr. Cassatt has re-established his celebrated Chesterbrook Stock Farm so far as racing is concerned and that the "red, white and blue" will be seen again on the turf, has a pleasant sound to the ears of those who like to think of racing being backed, sustained and contested by gentlemen who allow other considerations than the making of money to enter into the sport.—New York Telegraph.

AMERICAN RACING RULES OF 1899.

The 1899 edition of the American Racing Rules, published by Secretary E. C. Hopper of the American Turf Congress, is out and can be sent by mail to any address from this office for 25 cents. The book contains the racing rules as amended to January 1, racing Colors as registered and betting rules, and a digest in index
form which is a guide to all the books' contents

THE AMERICAN SPORTING MANUAL

The American Sporting Manual of 1898 is on general sale. It is a record of the turf, billiards, pugilism, trotting, pacing and all the leading lines of sport up to January 1, 1899. All the matter within its pages have been compiled and edited by experts. It prints a list of all the turf and track records
(by DAILY RACING FORM's staff), billiard figures, past and present (by John Thatcher), the fights of 1898, with comments (by George Siler) harness records to date and of the past (by John Hervey, the statistician of The Horse Review) and three handicap tables, with directions for their application and expert comment.
The Manual, in paper covers, sells at 30 cents
and in soft morocco covers at 50 cents.

Dear Sir:
Your tips by Postal Telegraph today were simply wonderful. You sent me eight horses—seven won and the eighth horse ran second.
The Devil won 3 to 1. Wolfheart won 2 to 1.
Alpen 4 to 5 won. Calocan ran second. M n-tanus won 4 to 5. Kodak won 4 to 5. Miss Bramble won 6 to 5. Barris-o won 7 to 5. You have sent me 37 winners out of the 42 horses
last sent. Wishing you every success imaginable I remain

Yours sincerely,

JULY FORM BOOKS ARE READY.

The paper and leather covered volumes of Monthly Racing Form, containing all the charts from June 30 to July 31, inclusive, are ready for delivery. In paper, $1; in leather, $1.50. The book is a large one and the supply limited.

RACING FORM'S SELECTIONS.

DAILY RACING FORM has no private information. It seeks none. Its calculations over the horses as they are grouped daily at various racetracks are purely those of general performance and ability as shown by the records and the application and knowledge of its editors and the reports of its correspondents. These calculations are printed daily. Nothing is hidden. All that the staff of the paper knows is put into type. If the selections made nightly are sought by persons outside the daily delivery lines of the paper they will be sent by Western Union night rate messages (collect) at $5 per track per week. Such service is not solicited, but if it is considered valuable, will be performed.

Time, 26, 50, 1:17, 1:42.
Winner—Ch. h. by Fonso—Battie Blaise.
Post 4 minutes. Start good. Won in a sharp drive of two. Fervor was much the best, but Kitley nearly drew the race away on him for which he was suspended for the meeting. Fervor raced all the speed out of Apple Jack. Kisme closed resolutely under good handling. Guide Rock propped himself in the hard going. Ransom finished determinedly.
Scratched—4125 Coonie Lee, 101.
Overweights—Appl's J. ck, 2 pounds.
Fervor, place, out. Kisme, place, 7 to 10; show, out. Ransom, show, even.

Time, 24, 50, 1:15.
Winner—B. g. by The Bard—Felicia II.
Post 2 minutes. Start good. Won easily; the next four were driving. Felix Bard made his field look cheap. His improvement demonstrated that there was something wrong with his last race, for which Holden was suspended. Dinornis had much hard luck. Sir Fitzhugh had a rough journey. Glissando and Silent Friend had no excuses.
Scratched—14102 Golden Rod II., 05.
Overweights—Winnebejour, 2 pounds.
Felix Bard, place, 6 to 5; show, 1 to 2. Dinornis, place, 3 to 1; show, 7 to 5. Silent Friend, show, 6 to 5.
